LIFE IS FULL OF IMPERFECT THINGS

When I was a kid, I remember one night in particular When mum had made dinner after a long, hard day at work. On that evening, my mum placed a plate of eggs, sausage and extremely burnt biscuits in front of my dad. I remember waiting to see if anyone noticed! Yet all my dad did was reach for the biscuit, smile at my mum and ask me how my day was at school. I don't remember what I told him that night, but I do remember hearing my mum apologize to my dad for burning the biscuits. And I'll never forget what he said, "Honey, I love burnt biscuits". Later I went to kiss my daddy good night and asked him if he really liked his biscuits burnt. He wrapped me in his arms and said, "Your mum had a long hard day at work today and she is really tired. And besides a burnt biscuit never hurt anyone! You know, life is full of imperfect things and imperfect people. I'm not the best, and I forget birthdays and anniversaries just like everyone. What I have learnt over the years is that learning to accept each other's faults and choosing to celebrate each other's differences is one of the most important keys to creating a healthy, growing, and lasting relationship".

11. The story happened at the weekend.
12. Neither the boy nor the father complained about the food.
13. Mother was sorry that the dinner was not perfect.
14. The boy's father was angry with mum for the imperfect dinner.
15. From the text we can say that the author had a happy family.

Task 3. Write an essay (6-8 sentences), telling about your hobby.

Task 4. Conversation with the examiner.
